

Smithyman-Arscott

THE marriage of Kevin Arscott, youngest son of Dave and Liz Arscott of Okehampton and Amy Smithyman, only daughter of Clive and Sue Smithyman of Pontyclun, South Wales, took place at St Mary's Hotel Golf and Country Club, Pencoed, Vale of Glamorgan, on July 30.

The bridegroom, a learning adviser at College Gwent, Ebbw Vale Campus, was accompanied by two best men, his friend from Okehampton College days, David Stokes and his brother, Simon Arscott.

The bride, a health and social care teacher at Newport High School, wore a Benjamin Roberts dress from the Tia bridal collection in ivory, with a long train and decorated with crystals. She carried a bouquet of white calla lilies.

She was attended by maid of honour Victoria Smithyman sister-in-law of the bride and bride's mad, Sarah Arscott, bridegroom's sister, who wore Alfred Angelo full-length dresses in grape and carried bouquets of white calla lilies.

Pidgeon-Schuttkacker

THE marriage of Holly Pidgeon of Chilsworthy, Gunnislake, eldest daughter of Ian and Fiona Pidgeon, Chilsworthy, and Paul Schuttkacker, of Battens Farm, Bere Alston, eldest son of the late Mr William and Mrs Christine Schuttkacker, took place at St Andrew's Church Calstock on September 3. The service was conducted by the Rev Bob Munroe.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore an ivory dress with hand beading of diamante and pearls and carried a bouquet of ivory roses.

The bridesmaids were Tilly Pidgeon, bride's sister, and Lauren Schuttkacker, bridegroom's cousin. They both wore teal dresses with ivory sashes and boleros.

Best man was Robert Schuttkacker, bridegroom's brother.

The couple held their reception at the Holland Inn, Hatt, and their transport was a vintage tractor driven by the bride's grandfather.

The bridegroom works as a farmer at Battens Farm, and the bride is an assistant cook at Harewood House. The couple's future home will be at Bere Ferrers.

The couple spent their honeymoon in Gran Canaria.
